Gilman to serve as a member of the License Commission over to the Attorney General's department, and Attorney General Hemenway will immediately look into the proposition, and see what action should be taken. WATERFRONT NOTES

INTER-ISLAND FLEET

Today is the busy time on the inter-island wharves, six of the steamers sailing today, either at noon or at 5 o'clock. Of these, the two big passenger boats for Maui and Hawaii, the Mauna Kea and the Mauna Loa, got away at noon, with their usual crowd of passengers, and general caravans.

The Noeau sailed at noon, also, for Honolulu and Kukuhaele, and the Heiwa went to the big island for sugar.

The Iwaland and the W. G. Hall will be the departures this afternoon, going in different directions, the latter to Kauai.

Owing to the fact that Thursday is a holiday, the inter-island wharves will be deserted on that day, and the Kinai will probably get away tomorrow evening on her run to Kauai.

STEAMERS DUE.

Quite a number of steamers will come in between now and the week end. The Mongolia sailed on the third, and should be in on time from the Orient. The Buford ought to come in from the Coast Thursday or Friday, as she is one of the fastest of the transports.

The Chargeurs Reunis Caravelles, Le Seven, is also due about the week end, from Yokohama. With the beginning of the new week, the Maine and the Alabama will be in, and there will be plenty of excitement on the waterfront to keep the wharf rats occupied.

THE AMERICAN schooner Geo. E. Billings, which sailed from Newcastle on April 3rd, arrived off the harbor this morning, en route to Eleele. She is a nice looking five master, and a smart craft. The cargo is consigned to Hind, Rolph & Co.

NO FREIGHT will be handled by the inter-island Steam Navigation Co. on Thursday, which is Kamehameha Day.

THE SHIP Marion Chilcott and the steamer Rosecrans sailed yesterday from Monterey with oil.

17 ACRES ON FIRE

(Special Bulletin Wireless)
Hilo, Hawaii, June 8.—Surveyor or Walter Will reports that there are seventeen acres of fire in the Volcano pit, and he recommends that those wishing to see a volcano in good action visit Kilauea now.

FLEET DIVIDED IN FOUR SECTIONS

Admiral Sperry, in his letter to Acting Governor Mott-Smith gives the exact manner in which the great Armada will be divided while here. This is in addition to a number of other valuable suggestions which the Admiral has made towards the way in which the sailors should be entertained while on the islands.

He states that the Fleet will be divided into four distinct sections, one of which will go to Maui to coal, the remaining three will remain outside Honolulu harbor, coming in, one section at a time to coal.

Acting Governor Mott-Smith is a personal friend of Admiral Sperry, having known him years ago. He has written a personal, as well as an official, letter to him, telling him how pleased he will be to renew the old acquaintanceship.

WANTS ANSWER FROM FAIRCHILD

The Kapaa land exchange must go through within the next few days or it will not go through at all. Acting Governor Mott-Smith has written to George Fairchild, manager of the Makae Sugar Company, to the effect that he must have an answer within a very short time.

The fact of the matter is that the Acting Governor has notified Fairchild that he must have a "Yes" or "No" ready from either Spalding or Rithet. It has been twenty-four days now since Spalding first had cabled information of the status of affairs, and Mott-Smith feels that this has been a great sufficiency.

ATTORNEY MCGILLAN

George B. McGillan, secretary to Delegate Kuhl, graduates this month from the Columbia Law School at Washington, D. C. Mr. McGillan has been following the custom of many energetic men in Washington by taking a special course at the Columbian University. McGillan is President of his class. Being a full-fledged lawyer it is possible that he will open a permanent office in Washington.

AMERICAN SAILORS ARE WELL-EDUCATED, ABLE MEN

There are 500 high school graduates among the bluejackets and marines of the Atlantic Battleship Fleet, 200 or 300 men who have graduated from educational institutions classed as colleges and 1,000 men who are taking courses in correspondence schools. There is not a warship that does not number among its men a large class of highly educated young Americans.

The seamen are not only, as a rule, well educated, but are well-bred and in many respects are far different from the old-time boisterous tar.

Although a battleship like the Connecticut carries a crew of nearly 900 men, only three or four bluejackets have left the vessel in the past several weeks. The same proportion holds good with the other battleships.—Examiner.

Mrs. James W. Orr, president of the California club, is succeeded by Mrs. Edward L. Baldwin.

All men need prayers, but it is best to put some of them in jail first.

Those who pay as they go do not have to fuss over their bills.

Magistrate Of Kona

Robert Makahalupa has been appointed District Magistrate for South Kona, Hawaii, to take the place of W. J. Yates, resigned. Makahalupa is an attorney.

RACES FOR THE 11TH

A meeting of local horsemen was held this morning, at which three races to be held at Kapiolani Park on Thursday afternoon were arranged, and a fourth was discussed tentatively. A race for one-fourth of a mile with four entries was made; another for one-fourth of a mile between Makana and the "Surprise Party" which beat the fast sprinter out last Saturday was arranged for, and Duke Spencer, Jr., and a horse of George Woods were matched for a half-mile. Another race will also be made, in all probability, and a try is now being made to get an auto race in on the program.

The time for the races to begin will be regulated by the number of the events which have to be pulled off. The races will be free to the public.

JURY SAYS NOT GUILTY

summed up the whole case, dwelling particularly on the credibility of Taylor, Matheson, and Ayres, his witnesses. He spoke at length on the fact that Lee Let's testimony was unsupported, while there were three men who told the same story for the prosecution. He closed his argument at 11 o'clock, when a 10-minute recess was declared.

Frank Thompson, attorney for the defendant, opened his argument by stating that he considered a lot of his opponent's talk irrelevant. He also went into a detailed outline of the case, bringing up many points that might have been overlooked. Concerning the denial in the Advertiser of the accusation that Taylor had been writing for that sheet in which it was stated that the last thing Taylor had written for them was a genealogy of Prince David, Thompson caused a general laugh around the court-room when he brought out the point that the genealogy had been copied almost verbatim from writings of Mrs. Nakulua. Thompson closed his argument a few minutes after noon, and the Court declared a recess until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

BELIEVE MAIL SUBSIDY PLAN WILL WIN AT LAST

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 31.—That the ocean mail bill, which passed the Senate on March 20th without a division, and later was sustained by the Senate in the Postoffice appropriation bill by a vote of forty-six to twelve, is not killed by the action of the House in failing to accept it on a narrow vote of 145 to 153, is the firm conviction of the friends of the measure. They believe that next December it will win by a decisive majority.
